

ELEVATE CONDUCT CONTRACT 2016

Purpose:

Everywhere we go, we are representatives of our God, the Church, our families, and Secona Baptist Church. Therefore, we seek to honor God in the way we act and the way we function as a group. This contract is intended to clarify what is expected. (Romans 12:1-2)

Dress:

The way we dress should honor God. Chaperones on trips have permission to suggest a change of dress at any time they feel the need to. (1 Corinthians 6:19-20)

Speech:

In the same way, may our speech be honoring to God. Our words hold immense power to encourage and to build up, or to discourage and break down. Profanity/other unwholesome speech will not be tolerated. (Ephesians 4:29)

Behavior/Respect:

Our behavior, as followers of Christ, is to be in line with how Jesus lived. Therefore, we treat others the way we want them to treat us, putting their needs ahead of our own. It does not matter whether this person is the queen of England or a homeless man on the street. We do not pick on others, put down others, prank others, etc. Our actions reflect our heart; the way we treat others and their property is a direct reflection of what we think about them. (Luke 10:27)

Interpersonal Relationships:

We want to glorify God by the way we interact with others, including those of the opposite sex. In order to eliminate distractions and temptations, there will be no girls in guys' rooms, and no guys in girls' rooms at any time. If you are not married, he/she is your brother/sister. (1 Timothy 5:1-2)

This is a zero tolerance contract, designed solely for the protection of our students, so that we may focus on Jesus. If a student violates this agreement and becomes a disruption, he/she will be sent home.

Having read this contract, I hereby understand and agree to abide by its terms:
